Requirements for Essay or Narrative Video

The essay or narrative video should answer the following questions: “What role has music played in my life and how will it shape and influence my future?” and “How will this scholarship assist me?” Videos should not exceed three minutes in length and must answer the question sufficiently. Essays should be typewritten in 12-point font and double-spaced. Essays should be a minimum of 350 but not more than 500 words in length. Essay pages should include the candidate’s name and high school name and be attached to the application form.

Videos shall be in a format available online or on portable media submitted with the application. All videos must be of good quality and clear enough to both see and hear the candidate.
